

MEDIA RELEASE

United Way's 2-1-1
United Way of Marathon County
137 River Drive
Wausau, WI 54403

Contact: Julie Grip
(715) 848-2927

September 1, 2010
For Immediate Release

United Way's 2-1-1 Publishes a New Give & Get Help Guide for Marathon County Residents

United Way's 2-1-1 has published a new GIVE and GET HELP GUIDE, a 32-page mini-directory of community services and volunteer opportunities. Marathon County residents can learn where to find help or give help as the 2010 edition contains community resource information about employment and training, financial counseling, food and other basic needs assistance, housing, transportation, parenting, child/youth services, legal services, counseling, recreational activities, services for seniors, support groups, veterans' services, business assistance, donated goods, volunteer opportunities, and much more.

United Way's 2-1-1 is distributing copies, free-of-charge, to residents of Marathon County. The new 2010 Give and Get Help Guide may be picked up at the following locations, during regular business hours:

United Way of Marathon County, City Hall, Marathon County Courthouse, and Marathon County Public Library in Wausau;

Marathon County Public Library Branches in Athens, Edgar, Hatley, Marathon, Mosinee, Rothschild, Spencer, and Stratford;
Schofield City Hall;
and Weston Municipal Center.

Residents who wish to have the guide mailed should call 2-1-1, 715-848-2255, or 1-800-922-5590; or email askus@unitedwaymc.org. Internet users may also view and download a copy of the Guide at <http://www.unitedwaymc.org/211.htm>.

###